NAVAIR Office of Small Business Programs Frequently Asked Questions:

The questions below are representative of the most common inquiries or comments that we hear from industry. We have provided the answers to those specific questions and described other approaches that we have taken in response to industry inquiries.

1. I want to do work with the Federal Government, where should I start?
 - a. Answer: For new companies, one of the best resources to utilize is your local Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC). Under the program, PTACs help businesses pursue and perform under contracts with the Department of Defense, other federal agencies, state and local governments, and with government prime contractors. Most of the assistance the PTACs provide is free. Help for Government Contracting - APTAC - Association of Procurement Technical Assistance Centers \(aptac-us.org\)
 - b. The Small Business Development Centers (SBDC) are also a valuable resource. Find Your SBDC - America's SBDC \(americassbdc.org\)
2. What is the role of the NAVAIR Systems Command Office of Small Business Programs?
 - a. Answer: The NAVAIR OSBP vision is to be the premier Department of Defense Small Business Office advocating for the best solutions for the Warfighter, while promoting NAVAIR's Strategic Imperatives, through maximizing opportunities for small business participation.
 - b. To this end, the NAVAIR OSBP mission is to enable the Warfighter with creative solutions, brought to them through small business, that are fully aligned with NAVAIR's Strategic Imperatives: Increase Speed of Products to the Fleet, and to Increase Material Readiness.
3. Does the NAVAIR OSBP award contracts?
 - a. Answer: No. We do not award contracts but we can provide you with small business training and guidance on how to connect with resources that may be needed in order to bid on and win contracts within the NAVAIR Enterprise which includes our affiliated Program Executive Officers (PEO) and their Program Management Air (PMA), the Naval Air Warfare Centers (NAWCS), and the Fleet Readiness Centers (FRC).
4. What does Naval Air Systems Command buy?

 - a. Answer: Go to the NAVAIR OSBP website and look under the Webinar tab and watch the webinars "How to Do Business with the Navy: NAVAIR NAWCAD, NAWCWD, and NAWCTSD" and "How to Prepare for Your First Meeting with NAVAIR"
 - b. Do your research. Understand the NAVAIR mission, what we buy and how we are organized. Know the programs we manage and the opportunities available.
6. Where am I able to find DoD contracts or information regarding contracts and solicitations?
 - a. Answer: System for Award Management web site is the federal procurement database that provides U.S. Government contracts, including the Defense Department contract opportunities. At the following link you can view a listing of our most recently announced contracts: <https://sam.gov>
 - b. The Federal Procurement Data System – Next Generation (FPDS-NG) is a searchable repository of millions of federal contact actions. Visit <https://www.fpds.gov> for more information.
7. How is a small business defined or categorized?
 - a. Answer: The Small Business Administration (SBA) defines a small business concern as one that is independently owned and operated, is organized for profit, and is not dominant in its field. Depending on the industry, size standard eligibility is based on the average number of employees for the preceding twelve months or on sales volume averaged over a three-year period.
 - b. The small business size standard is based on the North American Industry Classification System \(NAICS\) codes and is currently based on average revenue or average employment. Click here to determine your company's NAICS code(s).
8. What is the role of a Small Business Professional?
 - a. Answer: The role of the small business professional is to act as an advocate for small businesses, and to provide recommendations/advice where applicable, in order to maximize small business opportunities in all Federal Agencies. The NAVAIR Small Business Professional provides this service specifically in support of the warfighting missions of the Naval Air Systems Command and its affiliated PEO/PMAs, Naval Air Warfare Centers (NAWCs), and Fleet Readiness Centers.

11. How do I identify subcontracting opportunities?
- a. Answer: Regardless of your product or service, it is important that you do not neglect our very large secondary market, Subcontracting Opportunities with DoD Prime Contractors, which are available on the SBA website link: <https://www.sba.gov/document/support-directory-federal-government-prime-contractors-subcontracting-plans>. This document lists all major DoD prime contractors by state and provides a point of contact (Small Business Liaison Officer) within each firm. We encourage you to investigate potential opportunities with these firms. Many also have websites that may be useful, and we encourage you to team with them.
 - b. You can use our LRAFs to identify the current Prime contractor for our future procurements. Once you find a Prime you are interested in, recommend you contact their small business liaison office to find potential subcontracting opportunities.
12. Who do I contact if I have questions about my contract?
- a. Answer: For questions about your contract, contact the assigned Contracting Officer at the Command that awarded the contract.
 - b. Vendors may also contact the Small Business Professional. Ensure to have pertinent information available prior to calling the Small Business Professional, such as the contract number, title of the contract, and the contracting office points of contact.
13. How do I get on your list of contractors to be considered for work, and to be notified of opportunities?
- a. Answer: NAVAIR does not maintain a "list of contractors." NAVAIR posts sources sought notices and solicitations to on the SAM.GOV website at <https://sam.gov/content/home>
 - b. NAVAIR does welcome small business to register with us. Registration can be effected at <https://www.navair.navy.mil/osbp/node/add/company>. Simply complete the form and save.
14. How can I locate small businesses in a given area for subcontracting work?

- a. Answer: The SBA Dynamic Small Business Search engine is a great tool to locate small businesses within a certain geographical area. This tool can also be used for other detailed searches of various types of small businesses.
 - b. You can also reach out to Small Business Round Tables (SBRT).
15. Where can I find contracting procedures and contract clauses used on NAVAIR contracts?
- a. Answer: These are contained in the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR), Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS), and Navy/Marine Corps Acquisition Regulation Supplement (NMCARS), and other regulations. Visit the Acquisition.Gov website (Regulations | Acquisition.GOV)
